MONDAY, JULY 18th

Session Room 11, 10:15 AM-12:15 PM

VMMC as Prevention: Maximizing Investments & Sustainability Considerations
This satellite, sponsored by PEPFAR and USAID through the AIDSFree Project, will provide a summary of VMMC and early infant male circumcision (EIMC)-related research findings to be published in July 2016 in two journal collections in PLOS and Global Health: Science and Practice. Results with significant policy- and strategy-level consequences for national HIV programs will be highlighted. Presentation and moderated panel discussion to follow.

TUESDAY, JULY 19th POSTER SESSIONS Poster Exhibition Area, First Level 12:30-2:30 PM

Andrew Fullem, Associate Director for John Snow, Inc.
Targeted and Evidence-Based Prioritization is Needed for Continued HIV Efforts in India: HIV Sentinel Surveillance (HSS) Among Antenatal Clinic (ANC) Attendees

Nicholas Persaud, Stigma and GBV Specialist, Advancing Partners and Communities (APC)/Guyana
Developing and Integrating Gender-Based Violence Screening Program within Community Organizations

Precious Muwoni, Social Protection Advisor, Bantwana/Zimbabwe
Feasibility and Effectiveness of a Positive Parenting Intervention in Reducing HIV Incidence Among Adolescent Girls and Young Women from Grandparent-headed Households

WEDNESDAY, JULY 20th

Rainbow Terrace Restaurant, Hilton Hotel Durban, 12:45 -2:00 PM
PFSCM Satellite Session: Dare to Innovate—Meeting the Supply Chain Challenge of 90-90-90
The Partnership for Supply Chain Management (PFSCM) is hosting a luncheon and panel discussion exploring the 90-90-90 targets and the number of ramifications on elements of the supply chain. How will the UNAIDS 90-90-90 targets for 2030 impact the global supply chain for HIV/AIDS? Join them to find out.

Global Village-Faith Networking Zone, 2:00 pm
World Council of Churches presents: Reaching 90-90-90 for Youth and Adolescents
IMA will highlight effective faith based models and approaches for engaging youth and adolescents. AIDSFree to add perspective of working with youth and adolescents under different projects.
WEDNESDAY, JULY 20th POSTER SESSIONS Poster Exhibition Area, First Level 12:30-2:30 PM

Precious Muwoni, Social Protection Advisor, Bantwana/Zimbabwe Community Referral System Linking and Supporting HIV Positive Children to Services

Emmanuel Tibenderana, Training Coordinator, Strengthening TB & HIV and AIDS Responses in East Central Uganda Project (STAR-EC) Impact of Combination Prevention Approaches on High-HIV Prevalence in Fishing Communities: A Case of Sigulu Islands, Namayingo District East Central Uganda

Community Quality Improvement Teams: A Vehicle for Improving Retention of HIV Patients on Antiretroviral Treatment: Experience from East Central Uganda

Dorothy Namuganga, Medical Logistics Officer, Strengthening TB & HIV and AIDS Responses in East Central Uganda Project (STAR-EC) Enhancing Supply Chain Management of Anti-Retro Viral Drugs in a Resource-Limited Setting Through Web-Based Ordering System to Increase their Availability; A Case of East Central Uganda

Patrick Jacamunga, Finance Officer, Strengthening TB & HIV and AIDS Responses in East Central Uganda Project (STAR-EC) Leveraging HIV and AIDS Funding to Strengthen Health Systems Beyond HIV Programs in Hard-to-reach Communities: The Case of Bukooli Islands Women Integrated HIV and AIDS Initiatives (BIWIHI): Namayingo District, Uganda

THURSDAY, JULY 21st POSTER SESSIONS Poster Exhibition Area, First Level 12:30-2:30 PM

Shemshedin Omer, Harare Regional Manager, Strengthening Ethiopia’s Urban Health Program (SEUHP) Reaching Key Populations in Urban Settings Through Home-based HIV Testing and Counseling by Urban Health Extension Professionals in Ethiopia

Thulani Earnshaw, Country Director, Bantwana/Swaziland Advocating for Government to Introduce HIV Prevention in Schools as a Core Subject

Patrick Jacamunga, Finance Officer, Strengthening TB & HIV and AIDS Responses in East Central Uganda Project (STAR-EC) Using Program Evaluation Data to Design Strategies for Improvement of HIV Exposed Infants Diagnosis (EID) Outcome at Health Facilities in East Central Uganda