INSTITUTE

The Building Healthy Cities (BHC) project is testing models of healthy urban planning across multiple Asian cities. BHC's systems approach engages the following sectors to improve urban health outcomes for all:

- Health
- Urban Planning & Development
- Information & Communications
- Women & Children
- Nutrition & Food Safety
- Education
- Water & Sanitation
- Waste Management
- Environment & Natural Resources
- Transport
- Tourism & Commerce

BHC is a five-year cooperative agreement funded by the United States Agency for International Development under Agreement No. AID-OAA-A-17-00028, beginning September 30, 2017. BHC is implemented by JSI Research & Training Institute, Inc. (JSI) with partners International Organization for Migration, Thrive Networks Global, and Urban Institute, and with support from Engaging Inquiry, LLC.
